

Schoenstatt Pilgrimage and Retreat

Sponsored by Transfiguration Center for Spiritual Renewal, Ludlow Falls, Ohio

Where: Schoenstatt Shrines of Wisconsin

When: November 4 – 7, 2010

Cost: $300; Register by September 30, 2010

Gather together with other Schoenstatt members from Ohio as we make a pilgrimage and retreat to the Schoenstatt shrines of Wisconsin. Enjoy home cooked meals in the beautiful retreat center as well as time for prayer in these significant shrines. Inspiring presentations will be offered by the Schoenstatt Fathers and Sisters.

Curtis Kneblík, Director of the Transfiguration Center and member of Schoenstatt is coordinating the pilgrimage. The pilgrimage will depart from the Transfiguration Center parking lot at 7:30 am on Thursday, November 4th. In route, we will make a rest stop at Marytown, the National Shrine of Maximilian Kolbe in Libertyville, IL before reaching the International Schoenstatt Shrine in Waukesha for dinner. Lakefront Lines will be providing the bus and driver for our trip, which is approximately 12 hours including rest stops. Most of the retreat will be at the International Shrine in Waukesha with a day trip planned to the Exile Shrine in Milwaukee on Saturday. We will depart from Waukesha to Ludlow Falls on Sunday at 9:00 am.

Your $300 fee covers travel, accommodations, and meals while on retreat. Pilgrims are responsible for meal costs while traveling. Registrations must be received by September 30, 2010 to insure pilgrimage.
